

Bermans

Alternative methods of enforcement

Charging Orders

Bermans Fee: £425

To include: preparing necessary statements and application, obtaining Office Copies, arranging for service of interim order on debtor and any other interested parties, preparation and filing of certificates of service, preparation and filing of statement of amounts due, serving copy of final order on debtor and any other interested parties, registering restriction at Land Registry, dispute or payment negotiations with debtor, appointed third party or insolvency practitioner and copying any correspondence where necessary.

Exclusive of: court fee, Land Registry fee(s), cost of obtaining an order for sale.

Note: If the debtor or any other interested party raises an objection to the interim order being made final the court will transfer the case to the debtors home court and attendance at the final hearing will be required. In addition to the fee quoted above you will incur our charges (based on usual hourly rates) for dealing with the opposed application together with agents fees for attendance at the final hearing.

Oral Examination

Bermans Fee: £175

To include: preparing application, sending to appropriate court, arranging for personal service, instructing agents to attend where necessary, copying any correspondence.

Exclusive of: court fee, process server, agents fees and conduct money.

Attachment of Earnings

Bermans Fee: £175

To include: making application to court, preparing accompanying documentation, forwarding debtors response, copying any correspondence and arranging court to remit instalments direct to you.

Exclusive of: court fee, any agents fees or certificates of service that need to be sworn and conduct money.

Third Party Debt Proceedings

Bermans Fee: £575

To include: preparing statement and application, applying for third party order nisi, arranging service on debtor and third party (usually bank) instructing agents or counsel to attend hearing of application, serving copy of order absolute, copying correspondence.

Exclusive of: court fee, process server and/or agents fees.

Note: Bermans fees, searches, agents or advocates fees are subject to VAT at the appropriate rate.